I want to be part of your team, because the mind sport and everything with the idea of learning in a better way is fascinating me for so long.

And to get a part of it, can be a good way to find ways how it can be accepted in a wider way.

Also I learn trough this possibility people and their needs in areas of learning to understand and can help to find solutions for problems.

Last point (and a little personal) : I get in touch with people around the globe .
