My first career of 10 years was as a professional dancer in Australia and Europe. The companies I worked in included the Queensland Ballet, the Norwegian National Ballet, the Gothenburg Opera Ballet and Australian Dance Theatre.

I then completed a Bachelor of Economics at Adelaide University, receiving a GPA of 7 out of 7. For part of this degree I studied for a year in Japan, as a recipient of a Prime Ministers' Australia Award. Since then I have worked in the finance services industry, predominantly as a Fixed Income Dealer. I also still freelance in professional dance and train adults and professional dancers.

I am married with 3 children and live in Brisbane, Australia.
